Reflection

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

Stewardship

As an example, consider one of the mysteries that Saint Paul describes in today’s Second Reading. What is Saint Paul claiming when he tells the Colossians that they “have died”? He says: “Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with Him in glory.”

PRAYER FOR RAIN
"PRAYER FOR RAIN"

O Mighty God,
Your fingerprints are scattered across all of creation. Through each thing You have created, You show Your glory. Your caring and gentle nature are on display for all to see and experience. You open the heavens and bring the waters down from above. Lord, this very day we ask that You open the flood gates.
Bring down nourishing rains, that the land may be quenched and bring forth much fruit.

Amen.
